TONY CULLINAN LAWYERS

Legal Services, Conveyancing Transactions and Court Representation.

Should you or a family member have matters before the court, please give us a call. The court is seeking that there be only minimal attendance at this time, and all appearances should be limited to those which are absolutely necessary. While you or a family member might be required to attend court, we can liaise with the court for you and in some cases, have the matter finalised without the need for an appearance. Give me a call on 6492 4035 or 0432 481 900, or alternatively email us on tony@tonycullinan.com.au if you require any assistance with this. Our office at 32 Church Street Bega continues to be open, so please feel free to organise an appointment to discuss any legal matter that need assistance.

We can also advise community members on how to deal with a range of matters by telephone and welcome any inquiries at this time. To assist the community, we are happy to give short advice for free over the phone at this time. Initial contact with the court will also be free as a service to the community at this time.
