Big week encourages universal book reading

CHILDREN'S Book Week will be celebrated this year from August 17 to 23, and the theme for the week is "Read Across the Universe".

Book Week is the longest running children's festival in Australia, with 2013 marking its 68th birthday.

Every year the Children's Book Council of Australia – cbca.org.au – selects a short list of children's books vying to win the coveted Book of the Year in each of five categories: Older Readers, Younger Readers, Picture Books, Books for Early Childhood, and the Eve Pownall Award for Information Books.

This year's winners will be announced at noon next Friday, August 16.

There are 29 books in the five categories.

Since the business began in 1968, Gateway Bookshop has been selling books from each year's short list to schools and libraries, teachers, parents and children throughout the Riverina.

This year is no exception, and to mark 45 years of trading, Gateway Bookshop is offering 25 per cent discount off the retail price of the current Short List for the next three weeks as part of their clearance sale.

In addition, the entire range of Usborne Children's Books has been discounted until the end of August by 33 per cent off retail.

With every $40 spent during the Sale (20%-90% off all stock), shoppers will receive a voucher for a free coffee at the Storehouse Cafe.
