

Christmas Spectacular 2013

Festive magic for all the family

THIS Sunday the Wagga Wagga Christmas Spectacular will be back for a 39th year to not only provide a great free night out for families but also to raise funds for Kurrajong Waratah.

Wagga's fabulous Music Bowl in the Botanic Gardens will once again host the event, which will kick off at 6.30pm with children's entertainment.

From 7.30pm a musical program compiled by the Music Director of the Australian Army Band Kapooka Major Peter Thomas will be in the spotlight on centre stage.

Sharing the stage with the band will be an array of Wagga's many talented local artists, choirs and dance groups including:

- Jade O'Halloran;
- Lauren Carlson;
- Jamie Way;
- Carli Kulmar;
- Haylee Potts;
- Riverina Central Choir;
- Riverina Conservatorium Massed Choir;
- Cantelina Singers; and
- Dancers from the Southern Cross Performing Arts.

Food will be available from South Wagga Lions and other community group stalls and there will be candle bags on sale.

This promises to again be a merry night filled with joy, music, family, friends and great entertainment!

The fun will finish at around 9.30pm.
