

18th Annual

Garden & Outdoor Festival

Saturday October 26
and
Sunday October 27

Proudly presented by
ROTARY CLUB OF WAGGA WAGGA SUNRISE

Event organiser John Wood and Sunrise Rotary President Peter Gissing in Wagga's Botanic Gardens

All proceeds will go to fire victims

WITH predictions for a blooming beautiful weekend in the Garden City this weekend as many as 10,000 people are expected to converge on Wagga's Botanic Gardens this weekend for the 18th annual Sunrise Rotary Garden and Outdoor Festival. "At the moment the forecast is for 21-22 degrees and sunny for both days - magnificent," event organiser John Wood said. Mr Wood said there will be something for all the family with presentations on the hour from 10am-3pm in the new lecture tent and entertainment by Grant Luhrs and school choirs throughout the day. There will be a host of new site holders this year, and Sunrise Rotary will again be hosting its food and drink tents. ■ Details: rotary.waggasunrise.com.au/garden-outdoor-festival/

Wayne's a rock star

FOXROCKS Principal Wayne Fox (aka rock star) is an experienced landscaper gardener with more than 25 years of experience.

Since 1987 Wayne has been designing and creating gardens that his client's desire.

Wayne specialises in dry stone wall construction for private and public spaces.

His work is grounded in the fundamental principles of dry stone walling practices and he uses traditional techniques to create structures that will endure the passing of time.

With the Box of Rocks range

Wayne wants to encourage the home DIY enthusiast to get into rock and build their own "functional art" from high quality Australian rock and stone. Through his website (www.foxrocks.com.au) Wayne also seeks to provide inspiration and ideas about how stone and rock can be incorporated into or become a feature of your garden.

If you would like to gain some hands-on walling experience, tips on technique and the satisfaction of building a dry stone wall, contact Wayne for details.

INTRODUCING RIVERINA WATER LAWN REPLACEMENT WATER EFFICIENCY PROGRAM

'BEYOND THE NATURE STRIP'

Following the success of the Riverina Urban Nature Strip Rebate Scheme, Riverina Water would like to introduce the 'Beyond The Nature Strip' booklet.

This booklet will provide you with information on water efficient gardening, a guide to replacing your lawn & useful water efficiency tips.

With spring upon us Riverina Water encourages residents to continue to think sustainably & consider replacing some lawn around the home.

Visit www.rwcc.nsw.gov.au for an electronic version or call 6922 0608 to request a copy of the booklet
