visitors impressed

INTERNATIONAL Hotel Wagga, the 4.5 star luxury hotel superbly located in the heart of the city, was unveiled on Sunday to impressed members of the public.

Potential guests planning weddings and corporate events were shown through the stunning brand new hotel, which offers conferencing facilities, a business centre, honeymoon suites, Marble Bar, and the Allure Restaurant.

Visitors to the Wagga Wedding Expo had an opportunity to explore the stunning corporate accommodation, catering to both leisure and business travellers.

International Hotel Wagga manager Rebecca described the open day as a huge success, admitting staff were overwhelmed by the reaction the event generated.

"It went extremely well" she said.

"We knew it would be busy but we were truly inundated with people."

"The hotel was really well received and the overall reaction was that people were really impressed with what we have done."

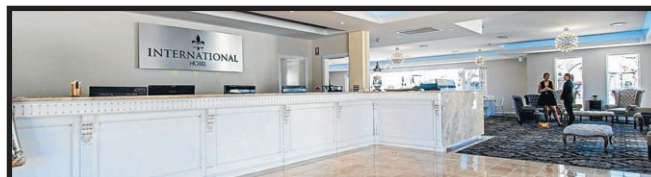

"I know a lot of visitors were surprised by how big it is and how spacious the rooms are."

Rebecca said "a large number of visitors booked on the day, after deciding the versatile rooms and honeymoon suites are a perfect fit."

"We had excellent feedback, particularly on the heaters, custom made carpets and light fittings" Rebecca said.

"The heaters are in the shape of lamp shades imported from Las Vegas, we knew they would be pretty eye catching."

"A lot of people also commented to us about how quiet it is in the rooms despite the fact we are situated on a main road."

▶ Rooms

INTERNATIONAL Hotel's 81 rooms offer visitors plush surrounds that guarantee a fantastic night's sleep.

With large marble bathrooms, mini bars, free Wi-Fi, room service and wool carpeting, nothing has been overlooked to provide a unique stay.

The property's acoustics are designed so train and road noise is undetectable. This is achieved through the use of 15mm thick heat resistant glass windows, sealed like a cool room door to attain maximum reduction of external noise and a comfortable room temperature.

Thermal backed, tailor-made curtains in black velour ensure total darkness and the gas powered refrigerators mean there will be no annoying hum keeping guests awake at night.

Key card room entry maintains the highest degree of security available.

50" LCD TV's to unwind by, hard-wired internet, Foxtel, plus the option of free Wi-Fi, king size beds with pillow top mattresses in every room and wingback chairs add to the superior experience.

The hotel also offers two suites with media rooms with black granite desks, an iPad and photocopying facilities.

The hotel

INTERNATIONAL Hotel offers guests a luxurious stay which few properties in the city can match.

International Hotel, Wagga's newest accommodation, will treat guests to a grand, European-style experience throughout its 81 room facility.

From the 4 1/2 star suites to the bar, conference facilities and Allure Restaurant, customers can expect the best in comfort, fit-out and features.

Sophistication is the word that will spring to mind as visitors arrive under the portico, proceed through the automatic doors and into the marble foyer.

From there they will be further captivated by the elegance as they make their way to their room featuring the security key card access. Multiple room types are available, catering for families, corporate, community or sporting groups.

A business centre, conference facilities, a bar and individual meeting rooms are also available.

135 parking spaces on-site with 35 undercover, with space for buses as well.

With $15m spent on the property, it is the complete, one stop hotel service, boasting an unsurpassed fit-out, including rooms with 15mm thick windows to eliminate traffic and train noise, 100% wool carpet, whisper quiet refrigerators and every room has a king size bed with a pillow top mattress. All this and more to ensure a solid, restful sleep. Two of the rooms also feature a media room attached for corporate guests who won't have to leave their accommodation to attend business needs.

International Hotel will be offering fantastic deals in the coming weeks on the internet and through local media.

Located on the corner of Sturt Highway and Lake Albert Road, the hotel can be contacted on 6971 7007, at www.intlhotelwagga.com.au or email reservation@intlhotelwagga.com.au.

Conference facilities

INTERNATIONAL Hotel's conference facilities boast four function rooms of varying sizes, with different configurations able to host up to 200 guests.

Each has a remote controlled screen, built-in data projector and has wired PA audio, for wireless microphone use.

Catering mainly the corporate market, the rooms can also be used for the leisure market, including weddings and birthday parties.

Excellent natural light and imported, stylish tables and chairs ensure a comfortable event for guests. Each conference room has a 'breakout' area complete with tub chairs and footstools, enabling visitors to take a phone call, brainstorm in smaller groups or chat over coffee.
