Style sets the scene

ORGANISING a wedding is like conducting an orchestra – so many different parts all coming together in perfect timing.

A wedding at Mercure Wagga allows couples to focus on the important things as they celebrate their love with family and friends.

Julie North – one of Wagga's most experienced Wedding Co-ordinators – has seen first hand the benefits of hosting a wedding at the Mercure.

"It removes the awkwardness of those few hours between the ceremony and the Reception," Julie says.

"Guests have the option of mingling together at the hotel's bar prior to the Reception.

"And, at the end of the evening, their hotel room is just a few moments away."

The great value packages on offer include fine dining menu choices, beverages, decorations, AV equipment and dance floor in the spectacular newly opened Grande Regent Room.

Under the direction of General Manager Luke Kennedy, the hotel has recently enjoyed a multi-million dollar refurbishment.

"We wanted to create a venue that would reflect our position as the Riverina's number one hotel," Luke says.

"Our Grande Regent Room is magical in the evening with state-of-the-art mood lighting."

"It is like something right out of a movie."
