

Respect Week 2013

TAAG - The Action Awareness Group Inc

Be aware of your actions

Holy Trinity Primary School students Paris Smith, Ethan Drum, Bailey Woods and Gabbie Lawson, Clare McGrath and Deanne Jeffries with TAAG Wagga President Ronda Lampe.

Wagga High School Principal Mick Powell with students Eliza Brown, Tom Baldwin and James Hay at this week's special Respect Week assembly.

Wagga High School students at this week's special Respect Week assembly.

THE way we act can have a profound impact on those around us.

Respect Week, which begins in Wagga today, is a reminder to think about how our actions can affect others, and to make sure we are respectful.

In Wagga the week – which is an initiative of The Actions Awareness Group (TAAG) – will kick off with a host of events today.

There will be a fundraising barbecue at Bunnings at the corner of Dobney Avenue and Pearson Street run by South Wagga Rotary.

The first $500 raised by the barbecue will be donated to TAAG and South Wagga Rotary will be putting all other money raised towards other community causes.

TAAG volunteers will be at a stall to hand out out Respect Balloons and other items for the children.

TAAG will also have a stand at Wagga Marketplace today.

In Respect Week, TAAG will have stands in the Sturt Mall and South City on Thursday and Friday respectively.

Wagga City Council has also placed a Respect Week banner across Wollundry Lagoon Bridge.

TAAG has also been active in

Wagga's school ahead of Respect Week.

All Year 7 students will receive a Respect rubber wristband and teachers at all schools were given enough yellow fluoro jackets with "plant RESPECT and watch it grow" logos on the back to wear on playground and bus duty.

Wagga High School held a special assembly for its students on Wednesday to discuss the significance of Respect Week.

TAAG has also produced a fridge magnet with their "STOP ... THINK ... RESPECT ... because everyone counts" as well as the "plant RESPECT and watch it grow" logos.

Meanwhile, many of Wagga's butchers will be using TAAG's

"Respect Everyone" stickers on their packaged meat parcels during the week, which are also being used by Woolworths and Coles stores.

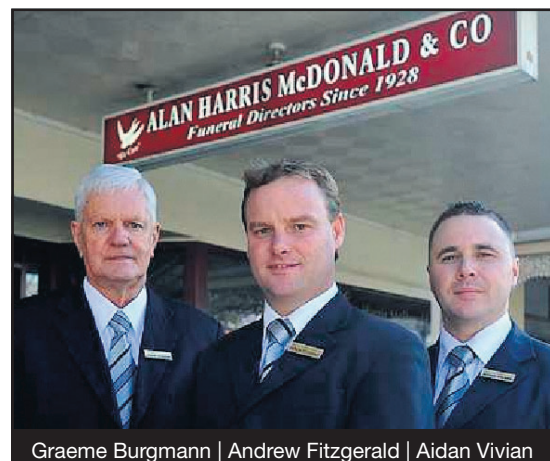

All children in daycare pre-schools and primary schools will receive the stickers.

All kindergarten children will receive a Respect pencil grip from TAAG at the start of the 2014 school year.

Bee Dee Bags has produced a special Respect Week reusable shopping bag, which will be on sale for $1 each at TAAG stalls at The Marketplace and Bunnings today, at the Sturt Mall next Thursday 4-9pm and at South City on Friday 4-9pm.

The Daily Advertiser printed A5 Respect Week flyers in this week's Wednesday and Friday editions and these were also distributed along with A3 posters to Wagga businesses, school, the university, industrial areas and Defence bases.

"I applaud TAAG for their continuing efforts to encourage the community through an education program to have respect for other people, their rights and their property," Member for Wagga Mr Daryl Maguire said. "We all should embrace the message of respect and I am very supportive of TAAG with their initiatives."

Graeme Burgmann | Andrew Fitzgerald | Aidan Vivian

Alan Harris McDonald
Funeral Directors

~ Proud Supporters of Respect Week ~

Phone us on 02 6921 4913 - Any time
10 Baylis Street, Wagga Wagga

RM2010745

Solar System Fully Installed
From $25 per week*
Can you afford to say no?
*Conditions Apply

Proudly supporting Respect Week

PLANET POWER

2 Blake St, Wagga Wagga, 2650 | (02) 6939 5959
www.planetpower.com.au Find us on Facebook

RM2008830

LET GOOD THINGS HAPPEN

Mercure WAGGA WAGGA

PROUDLY SUPPORTING RESPECT WEEK

- Conferences • Weddings
- Accommodation
- Restaurant and Bar
- Functions and Corporate Events

1 Morgan Street, Wagga Wagga
Phone: 6939 7200
Web: accorhotels.com.au/hotel/mercure-wagga-wagga

BeeDeeBags AUSTRALIA

Over 35 years in Retail Packaging

Proud sponsors of

RESPECT WEEK 2014

RM2008076

BeeDeeBags Australia's Carry Bag Specialists

Thomas Bros TOYOTA

Stop...Think...Respect...because everyone counts.

activeprint THE laminex GROUP Koorlingal Pharmacy

Building a better community

RESPECT WEEK

23rd-30th November

ALAN HARRIS McDONALD & CO FUNERAL DIRECTORS

SAUSAGE SIZZLE!
Bunnings, cnr Dobney Ave & Pearson St
Saturday 23rd November, 9:00am

TAAG PRIME The Daily Advertiser

WAGGA WAGGA ROTARY CLUB INC