Countdown to Wagga's New Year's Eve Spectacular.

COUNT down to Wagga's New Year's Eve Spectacular! Enjoy the family friendly atmosphere, live bands, children's entertainment and two fantastic fireworks displays.

Bring your friends and family and join us for a fabulous night of celebration.

At the Wollundry Amphitheatre and gardens, children will be singing and dancing along with live performances by the South Cross Performing Arts troupe, a children's show by Matt Olsen and Meredith Adams and The Sunday Sailors featuring Leah Ellis, Haylee Potts, Michael Peacock and Matthew Barron.

A host of free children's amusements will be available and include Fairy's R Us face painting, giant super slide, merry-go-round, toddlers inflatable slide and jumping castle and Old Kentucky Animal Farm.

Balloons and glo sticks will be on sale and you can have photos with your friends with Riverina Photo Booth.

The children's fireworks at 9:15pm will be held in the Victory Memorial Gardens.

Family and friends can enjoy a BYO picnic or purchase food from a variety of local gourmet food stalls in the festive atmosphere of the Victory Memorial Gardens.

The live music will kick off with Dane Kennedy from 6:15pm.

The countdown continues from 9:30pm with the Groove

Factorie Band featuring guest artists Jamie Way, Cathy Wall, Matt Olsen, Meredith Adams, Lauren Carlson, Cheyenne Halloran, Hayley Potts, Nathan Lamont, Justine Hogan and Leah Ellis.

The show will cover a wide range of music showcasing some of Wagga's finest singers and musicians.

The night will finish with a grand finale of spectacular fireworks at midnight to welcome the 2014 New Year in grand style.
