THE Harden Hawks would have had an anxious night last night, Wednesday, as they awaited the outcome of a hearing in Queanbeyan following Riley Manwaring being reported for a dangerous throw in last weekend's match against the Yass Magpies.

The 17-year-old speedster has been one of the Hawks' standout players this year and supporters wouldn't like to see him miss out on his first grand final in the George Tooke Shield.

The Hawks are also waiting to see if centre James Smith will be able to play. The club won't know until Saturday if he has recovered from a hamstring injury that has kept him out of the team for the past couple of matches. He has been one of the team's most consistent players this season.

The Hawks had a training run on Tuesday night and have another training session on Friday night ahead of Saturday's grand final against the Binalong Brahman's at Binalong, starting at 2.30pm.

It is going to be a hard match as Binalong have not been defeated all season.

However the loss to Binalong in the semi finals may be the spur the Hawks need to get around Binalong in the game that really counts.

A supporters bus has been organised for the game and if anyone wants to go on it they should contact Jason or Jodie Pollard.
