Easter Church messages

St Gregory's Parish

VICTOR Frankl spent three years in Auschwitz. He survived though his wife and family perished.

He tells how one day shortly after the liberation of the camp he went for a walk through the country towards the market town a few miles away from the camp.

The meadows were full of flowers. Larks rose singing into the sky. There was no one to be seen for miles around. There was nothing but the wide earth and sky, the singing of the larks, and the freedom of space.

We cannot separate the joy Frankl felt that day in that flower-filled meadow from the suffering he experienced in the camp. In fact, that joy would have no meaning were it not for the suffering that preceded it.

In the same way we can't separate the resurrection of Jesus from his passion and death.

And so it must be for us. The resurrection is the main thing, but we must not forget that it was preceded by the passion and death. We can't have Easter Sunday without Good Friday. But when we are experiencing Good Friday we should remember Easter Sunday.

Blessings for Easter.
Father Troy Bobbin
