Cleanup Queanbeyan this weekend

QUEANBEYAN is in for a bit of the old spit-polish this weekend as the annual Cleanup Australia Day rolls around on Sunday.

Volunteers from Queanbeyan NRMA and Queanbeyan City Council have already participated in Business Cleanup Australia Day on Tuesday, with volunteers from both organisations out cleaning our streets.

And Queanbeyan Schools will get into the action today to take part in Schools Clean Up Australia Day. The schools taking part are Queanbeyan Public School, Jerrabomberra Public School, Queanbeyan West Public School and St Gregory's School (Macquoid St).

This Sunday is the official Cleanup day, and there are nine registered groups signed up so far for a spruce up around Queanbeyan.

These are:

-Queanbeyan City Council - Queen Elizabeth Park - 9am - 12 and FREE BBQ

-Queanbeyan Girl Guides cleaning up

bushland around their hall
-First Bungendore Scouts - will be out on the river

-Carwoola Community Association will be cleaning up Captains Flat Road 8am - 11am

-Queanbeyan Landcare will be at the Low Level crossing Morisset Street 9am - 12

-McDonalds Queanbeyan are cleaning up Queanbeyan Park

-Fernleigh Park Community Centre (Queanbeyan Landcare) meet at the community hall 10am - 12

-Royalla Landcare will be cleaning up Old Cooma Road meet at the Jerrabomberra Creek Rural Fire shed 9am - 12

-Karabar Preschool are cleaning up around the preschool area 8am - 12

Thanks to all the schools, business and community groups that have volunteered to help Clean Up Queanbeyan
