

BAKER DEANE & NUTT

LAWYERS SINCE 1861

BILL BAKER

Bill graduated from the Australian National University in 1970 and commenced practice with BDN soon after in 1971. In almost 40 years of legal practice, Bill has worked across most areas of law but now focuses primarily on property and commercial transactions, local government law and estate law. Bill has provided extensive services to the community and is currently the Chair of the Queanbeyan Development Board and Vice President of the Queanbeyan Business Council.

CHARMAINE TUNN

Charmaine is Managing Partner of the Canberra Office and runs the firm's litigation, personal injury and workers compensation practice. She joined BDN in 1996 after completing her studies at the Australian National University.

IAN MARJASON

Ian joined BDN in 1990 as a Solicitor and became a partner in 1992. He attended Queensland University until his graduation in 1986 and has since been enrolled as a Solicitor and Barrister in the NSW and ACT Supreme Courts, as well as the Federal Courts. Ian practices mostly in family law, is a Notary Public and is an Accredited Specialist in Advocacy. At a local level, Ian has also served the community as the Mayor of Palerang and is a current Councillor.

TANYA NADIN

Tanya joined the firm in 2003, working as a paralegal until the completion of her legal studies and admission as a practitioner in December 2004. Tanya practices in family law, wills and estates, criminal and traffic matters, commercial law and general litigation. Tanya lives in Bungendore with her husband and two small children.

RICHARD BAKER

Richard completed his legal studies at the Australian National University in 2004 and also holds a degree in Applied Science from the University of Sydney. After working with the Commonwealth Public Service for several years, Richard returned to private practice in our Canberra Office. His primary focus is in personal injury, general litigation and local government law.

LORRAINE WHITE

Lorraine, an experienced commercial Lawyer, joined BDN in May 2011. Lorraine has a Bachelor of Commerce and a Bachelor of Laws from the Australian National University. She has expertise in all aspects of commercial law, commercial conveyancing, business sales and purchases, planning and commercial leasing matters. Lorraine also practices in family law, employment law and wills and estates.
