Takeaway with a twist

CAPITAL Takeaway's menu has something for everyone offering staples like burgers and chips as well as noodle and rice dishes.

Owners Mike and Selina Yu took over the business about 12 months ago and have been keeping local workers satisfied with a range of burgers, bacon and egg rolls, chips and fresh cut sandwiches.

They also have a menu of Asian dishes including Singapore noodles, Pad Thai, laksa, Japanese curry and Nasi Goreng.

Mrs Yu said the 'Brekky Burger' is a favourite among customers and it includes bacon, egg, hash brown, double cheese and sauce all in a roll. It comes with a free coffee between 6-10am.

"It's very popular especially with the work men in the morning," she said.

Visit Capital Takeaway at 5 Shropshire Street, Queanbeyan or ring 6297 6855.

They are open Monday-Friday from 6am to 3pm.

STEP back into yesteryear to be charmed and captivated by this delightful cottage that was part of Queanbeyan's character and synonymous with homes that were built in the late 1950s.

The current owners, who have resided happily there for the past 40 years have certainly made it their home and have had much enjoyment from growing their own magnificent vegetables. You can also admire one of the most majestic heavily laden grapefruit trees you will ever encounter.

From the street frontage the presentation that is on offer is certainly very inviting.
