

Sun shines on show

WARM, sunny weather and a range of activities designed to please everyone drew 10,000 to the Nowra Show on Friday and Saturday.

Sideshow alley was as popular as ever, but there was something interesting to see wherever you looked.

SMURF TURF: Keira Sater from Worrigea and her horse Crystal win the under six fancy dress competition at Nowra Show.

STUDENTS: Nowra High students, Celia Lefevre, Emily Bawden, Bella Lefevre and Lili Connolly-Davies with Jaffa at Nowra Show on Saturday.

GREAT FUN: Linda and Jaclyn Denya from Vincentia having a great time on the rides at Nowra Show.

SHOW GIRLS: Showgirl entrant Billie-Jade Prince and 2014 Nowra Showgirl Hannah Ison take a stroll around the grounds.

GREEN SCENE: The King and Queen of Green spread the word about recycling at the Nowra Show.

SLIPPERY SLIDE: Elise Denya from Vincentia enjoys a go on the big slide at Nowra Show.

BOUNCING: Annabelle Robertson from Nowra tries out a mini jumping castle at the Nowra Show.

A GOOD KNIGHT: Dylan Stockley from Nowra and Fox ready for their dress up event at Nowra Show on Saturday morning.

WestonTM Milling
Animal Nutrition

Australia's longest established manufacturers of high quality processed animal feed products.

Weston Milling ~ at the leading edge of animal nutrition manufacture in Australia and New Zealand

For all your stock feed requirements and information on our latest products

Contact: Adele Graham 0408 365 685 adele.graham@gwf.com.au