Feast for the eyes

YUMMY apple pies, smartly decorated cakes, giant pumpkins and some beautiful photography were all on display in the pavilion at Nowra Show. Checking out the entries was a great way to escape the heat and also to marvel at the amount of local talent.

GREAT DAY: Bonnie Mulder from Murrays Run and Lila Mulligan from Callala Bay enjoy a day out at the Nowra Show.

PRIZE PUMPKINS: Mike Mertens and Gill Clayton from Sydney with Dianne White and Denis Fisk from Cambewarra admire the display of produce in the pavilion at the Nowra Show.

FAMILY FUN: Kelly, Luke, Claire and Scott Merivale from Culburra Beach have a great time in the pavilion at the Nowra Show on Saturday.

YOUNG TALENT: Tanayah and Bailey Caple from Nowra check out the junior art display at Nowra Show on Saturday.

WORTH EATING: Anita dela Motte from Bomaderry and Margaret Ormsby from New Zealand take a look at the entries in the cake competitions at the Nowra Show.

TASTE TREATS: Ashley and Kris Mogfard from Meroo Meadow in the cake section of the Nowra Show pavilion displays.

SMART SNAPPER: Trinity Tilbury from North Nowra with her two commended entries in the children's photography competition at Nowra Show.

FLOWER POWER: Angelo Schepis from Callala Bay and pavilion official Jenny Dawson discuss the dahlia display at Nowra Show on Saturday.

ON SHOW: Matt, Erin and Flynn Robinson from Shoalhaven Heads take a look at the exhibits on display in the pavilion at the Nowra Show on Saturday.
