Be floored by range of options

NOWRA Flooring Xtra is not a cookie cutter solution – it is a family owned and operated business, with a friendly team of experts in carpets, timbers, rugs, bamboo, vinyl, laminate, blinds and shutters.

This gives customers peace of mind knowing they are receiving the absolute hands down best products and best value for money, all suited to their own taste, budget and lifestyle in one simple package that is sure to leave them smiling. Flooring Xtra has been established on the South Coast for 30 years, providing stylish, cost effective flooring solutions for both residential and commercial customers.

Meet the Moto team

Members of the Moto Parts on the Move team.

THE Moto Parts on the Move team has over 100 years of combined experience.

There's new manager Sue with 32 years' experience and assistant manager Dave close with 28 years' experience.

Sales team member Mick has been on board over 30 years, with the rest of the sales team, Shane J (four years), Jason (10 years), Paul (20 years), Chris (25 years) and Shane E (seven years) rounding out sales.

Number crunchers Robyn (20 years) and Karen (30 years) are also long-serving team members, not to mention the storemen, Dave, Trevor and Matt and drivers Jenine, Grace and Sandra.

In April 2011 Moto Parts took over and the store's new look started to take shape.

Moto Parts was purchased by a family owned and run business from Wollongong, South Coast Agencies and has continued to grow with new owners.

Moto Parts services trade and retail throughout the Shoalhaven and beyond.

It stocks a huge range of auto parts and accessories including tools, paint, bearings and seals.

If Moto Parts don't have it, then the staff reckon they should be able to find it, as Moto Parts has over 50 suppliers to source parts from.

Moto Parts delivers to trade and account customers daily, making eight runs per week day.

Opening hours are 7.30am to 5.30pm weekdays and 8am until 2pm Saturdays.

Sleep better with Forty Winks

FOR three generations the Blakeney family has been making people feel great.

Glenn, Helena, James and now Jess Blakeney and their long-term Forty Winks team have the ability to improve people's lives by about 30 per cent.

That's about how much of the average person's life is spent sleeping.

"We've been helping people find a bed that provides the best night's sleep for them for three generations now," Glenn said.

"My parents had been in the industry since I started high school."

Now Glenn, with his wife Helena, has built the business to a point that could see it continue for many generations to come.

With son James and now daughter Jess involved in the business, the family friendly

Helena, James and Glenn Blakeney, now with Jess (not pictured) are still committed to helping people sleep better.

Forty Winks are here to serve your family well into the future.

The experienced team know their product, and this is the key to choosing the correct mattress for today and for your future sleeping.

Tempur is just one of the products that you will be amazed at the difference that it will make to your quality of sleep.

These high-end mattresses have taken bedding to another level.

Glenn was among the first to get behind Tempur in Australia believing in the technology.

It turned out to be a smart move, Tempur has become extremely popular as people realise the importance of investing in a good night's sleep.

Call into the team today and take the first step towards a better sleep.
