Case Narr : This date spoke to BD who stated that his wife had originally taken her allegation to Bishop Leo CLARK when he was the Maitland Bishop (Which would have been prior to late 1995) but for unknown reasons he had never referred her to police, but did refer her to counselling with Sister Evelyn WOODWARD at Newcastle. BD indicated that they knew of other victims of UR20 but declined to give her surname unless she wished to report the matters to police. He also wished to pass on that his wife had also spoken to other clergy at the time but none did anything regarding her allegations other then counselling.

BD stated he would be prepared to assist if police wished to inquire further regarding this aspect as the whole matter had caused considerable trauma and stress to his wife until she died in 2007. He did indicate that she appreciated being notified that McALINDEN had died before her own death.

Case Narr : Spoke to the victim's husband BD : advised him that the POI was now deceased. He indicated that his wife is now nearly deaf & suffers from Huntington Disease. He was pleased to hear the POI was dead & they had not been previously advised of this. Indicated that he would tell his wife that McALINDEN was dead as it would be some form of closure to her. Indicated that any mention of this matter still upset her as they had felt betrayed by the church & Bishop MALONE over the years for not doing something about McALINDEN earlier as they had now become aware of other persons close to them that had also been victim's of this priest. Declined to disclose who they were. Case now considered closed.

- The victim was a member of the St Brigid's Catholic Church at Raymond Terrace in 1953. Attached to the Church there was also a Primary School. In 1953, when the victim was 11 years old, the assistant priest of the parish, the offender Father Denis McALINDEN befriended the girl and two of her friends. He would take the girls for drives while on his parish rounds. He dropped off the other two girls and then took the victim to a secluded area of Richardson Road Raymond Terrace where he had vaginal/penile intercourse with the girl. This happened on a total of four occasions until the girl stopped getting into the Priest's car. On two other occasions, at activity events in the church hall, the preist took the girl into the servery area of the hall and had her masturbate him until ejaculation.
