Most Rev. M. Etalene D.O.,
 Coadjutor Bishop of Maitland-Newcastle,

Dear Bishop,

Just a lasty note to inform you that I have now recovered the previous letter (ctov. 2nd) from Bishop Clarke which had 's' misplaced unopened - I presume Bishop Clarke has passed on to you the subsequent letter I sent him explaining the circumstance. Anyway, after pulling out all the drawers of the locker in my room, where I had left the letter in - my rush to do some shopping, I eventually found it yesterday evening. Hence, there'll be no need to forward a second copy of the same which I had requested.

I shall set to with the study of the documents and prepare my response to be forwarded as soon as completed.

On Thursday (23rd Nov.) had my last visit to the Specialist; he then arranged for me to enter hospital again on 1st January; for further surgery.

I'm scarcely in a position to welcome you into the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle, considering the situation, but "Welcome" in any case, and apologies for burdening you with such unpleasant duties.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
 Davis M^o O'Hinden
