Dear Bishop Malone,

Thank you for your letter of 28th February confirming that AE has withdrawn her complaint to the police.

I note that you intend to discuss some aspects of the matter with AE's therapist Sr Evelyn Woodward.

AE has sounded very stressed on the several times that she has rung here, and she seems to be under the impression that the Church does not entirely like her. May I suggest that she receive a little note from your office, or from Sr Evelyn indicating that the matter is being looked at. That a meeting is possible, if not a premature message, might help to improve her spirits.

Yours sincerely,

John Davoren
