

RULES
FOR THE CONDUCT OF ALL BUSINESS
COMING BEFORE THE SYNOD OF THE
DIOCESE OF NEWCASTLE
TO BE KNOWN AS

AMENDMENT TO STANDING ORDERS 2009

Meeting of Synod

1. The Synod shall meet at least once in every year on such days as the Diocesan Council shall determine. One month's notice of such meeting shall be given

Special Sessions

2. It shall be in the power of the Bishop with the advice of Diocesan Council, or upon a requisition signed by twenty (20) members of each order, to call a special meeting of Synod, to deal with specially important and urgent business which shall be embodied in the requisition.

Prayers

3. The Synod shall be opened each day with prayers.

Place of Meeting

4. The place of meeting shall be determined each year by the Bishop. The Members of the Synod shall meet in one chamber, but either the clergy or laity shall, at the desire of ten members of the order, withdraw to a separate chamber for the purpose of deliberation.

Time of Meeting

5. The Synod shall meet, unless otherwise ordered, at 9.00am, and proceed to business as soon as a quorum is present.

Quorum

6. The President, with twenty clerical and forty lay members, shall form a quorum.

No Quorum

7. On the motion of a member the Synod may be counted at any time, and if a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes, the President shall adjourn the Synod until a later hour of the same day, or until the next regular day of meeting.

Meeting to be public

8. The meetings of the Synod shall be open to the public. The President may at any time, or on the request of five members, shall order members of the public to withdraw. The President shall determine when members of the public may be re-admitted.

Officers of Synod

9. The officers of Synod shall be a Chairman of Committees, a Deputy Chairman of Committees, a Clerical and a Lay Secretary, a "Returning Officer" and one or more Auditors, who shall be elected at the first session of each Synod, casual vacancies being filled up as necessary. Such election is to take place, on motion without notice, immediately after the Address of the President.

Duties of Chairman of Committees

10. The Chairman of Committees shall preside when Synod is in Committee of the Whole. When presiding he shall have a casting vote only, and otherwise shall have the same privileges and exercise the same authority as the president in Synod.

Duties of the Deputy Chairman of Committees

11. The Chairman of Committees may vacate the Chair with the consent of the President. The Deputy Chairman shall have the same rights and duties of the Chairman of Committees.

Returning Officer and Scrutineer

12. There shall be a Returning Officer who shall be responsible for supervision of all aspects of all elections required by the Synod. The Returning Officer shall have care, custody and control of all election records during the Synod and at the conclusion of Synod shall hand all such records to the Diocesan Business Manager.

Duties of the Secretaries

13. The duties of the Secretaries shall be to take minutes of all proceedings of the Synod as well as in Committee of the Whole, to record all the Rules, Ordinances, Reports and other documents which may be received by the Synod and the Report of the Proceedings of Synod for publication, to carry out all instructions of Synod to them, under the direction of the Bishop. At the close of each session of Synod the Secretaries shall hand over for safe custody all books containing Minutes, Records and Letters of the Synod to the Diocesan Business Manager, who shall produce them when and as instructed by the Bishop.

Duties of the Auditors

14. The duties of the Auditors shall include an audit of all Diocesan accounts before presentation to Synod. The Auditor shall be a Certified Practising Accountant or Associate/Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants or member of the National Institute of Accountants.

Committee of Elections and Qualifications

15. (a) The Committee of Elections and Qualifications shall inquire into and report upon all questions which shall be referred to them by the Synod respecting the validity of any election or return of any member, and also respecting the qualification or disqualification of any person who has been returned as a member of the Synod.
- (b) The Committee when inquiring into the matters referred to them, may receive the best evidence they can procure or which is laid before them, whether it be such as would be admitted at law or not and they may reject any evidence tendered to them which they may see fit to reject.
- (c) The Committee shall report the result of their inquiries to the Synod, and shall report whether they find that the election or return of the member whose case has been referred to them is valid, or whether the member is qualified as the case may be; whereupon it shall be competent to move forthwith, without notice, or on any subsequent day, pursuant to notice, that the report be adopted.
- (d) Upon the motion for the adoption of the report it shall be competent to substitute for it by way of amendment such resolution in respect to the matter referred to the Committee as to the Synod shall seem proper; provided that such resolution shall state distinctly that the election or return of the member is or is not valid, or that the member is qualified or disqualified to be such member as the case may be; and if by such resolution or by the adoption of the report, it be determined by the Synod that the member has not been properly elected or returned or that he/she is not qualified to be a member, he/she shall not thenceforth sit (unless re-elected) as a member of Synod, and the member's seat shall be declared vacant, but if the contrary be determined the member may forthwith take his/her seat.

- (e) No member of the Committee of Elections and Qualifications whose case has been directed to be referred to such Committee, and is still undecided, shall sit thereon until the case shall have been finally dealt with by the Synod.

Synod Business Committee

16. There shall be a Synod Business Committee which shall consist of the Diocesan Business Manager, Chairman of Committees and Archdeacon of Newcastle. The Committee shall arrange the order of business of the Synod for the first and subsequent days of the session. The Committee shall arrange the order of business of the Synod in such a way, subject to the Standing Orders and to any orders of the Synod, as will, in its opinion, best facilitate Synod's dealing with the business before it from day to day.

Diocesan Council to Forward Reports etc.

Amended 2001

17. (1) The Diocesan Council shall forward to every member of Synod at least fourteen days before the meeting:
- (a) its own report, together with the Treasurer's audited statements of accounts;

 - (i) Orders of the Day.
 - (j) Formal Motions.
 - (k) Motions of which previous notice has been given shall be considered.
 - (l) Prayers shall be said.
 - (m) Adjournment.

Order of business for the second and succeeding sessions of the Synod

20. The proceedings on the second and succeeding days of each session of the Synod shall be conducted in the following order:
- (a) Prayers shall be said.
 - (b) The minutes of the previous meeting be confirmed by the Minute Reading Committee.
 - (c) Notices of Questions.
 - (d) Notices of Motions.
 - (e) Formal motions.
 - (f) Orders of the day.
 - (g) Motions according to order arranged by the Synod Business Committee.
 - (h) Prayers shall be said.
 - (i) Adjournment.

President's Privilege

21. The President may take the same part in the discussions as other members without leaving the chair, and may vote on any question.

Members Speaking

22. If able, every member shall stand while speaking and address the President.

Questions of Order

23. All questions of order shall be decided by the President, and such decision shall be final unless altered by a vote of the Synod forthwith.

Limitation of Speeches

24. Except for a question of order or personal explanation, no member when speaking shall be interrupted. The mover of any motion shall be allowed ten minutes and all other speakers five minutes to speak to the motion, provided that Synod may extend the time allowed to any speaker. The mover of the motion shall have five minutes to reply.

Calling to Order

25. The President shall confine every member to the subject matter of debate and shall call to order any member who shall make personal reflections upon, or impute improper motives to another member, and it shall not be in order for any member to interrupt a speaker, except through the medium of the President, and then only on a point of order or to make a personal explanation.

Speaking More than Once

26. No member shall be allowed, unless in committee of the whole, to speak more than once on any question, nor more than once on any amendment or such question, except in explanation of misquotation of, or misconstruction put upon the member's words, provided that the mover of any question, not being an amendment, shall have the right of reply, and that the seconder may reserve the right to speak at any period of the debate.

Notice of Motions and Questions

27. Notice of any motion or question for insertion in the business paper for the first day of any session must be received by the Diocesan Business Manager at least 6 WEEKS prior to the first day of such session and for its insertion in the business paper of any subsequent day must be sent to the Diocesan Business Manager at least 2 WEEKS prior to the first day of such session. The Diocesan Business Manager shall cause a supplementary list of notices of motion or question to be prepared and distributed to Synod members prior to the first day of such session. (This supplementary list shall form part of and be read in conjunction with the business paper already distributed).

Except in pursuance of such notice of motion or to offer a personal explanation or state a question of privilege, no member shall bring any subject under the consideration of Synod unless it appears on the first days business paper or supplementary list or unless by permission of a two thirds (2/3rds) majority of Synod.

Where the answer to a question is in the opinion of the President inadequate the President may permit a member of Synod without notice to ask a supplementary question relative to the original question.

Formal Motion

28. Before the Orders of the Day or motions are proceeded with the President at each sitting shall read over the motions on the business paper, and any motion may be taken as a formal motion unless objection be taken thereto by the word "object", being called, by a person other than the mover and seconder and such motion on being declared formal shall be forthwith put from the chair without debate.

Orders of the Day

29. An Order of the Day is a Bill or other matter which the Synod has ordered to be taken into consideration at any particular time or on any particular day. The Synod may order any motion of which due notice has been given, to be an Order of the Day.

Adjourned Debate an Order of the Day

30. An adjourned debate shall stand an Order of the Day for the next sitting, and, unless otherwise ordered, shall take precedence.

Order of Motions

31. Motions shall be taken in the order in which they stand, and if not then made, unless postponed by leave of the Synod, shall be considered as having lapsed.

Motion Not to be introduced same Session

32. No motion or amendment which is the same in substance as a motion or amendment which has been resolved in the affirmative or negative during the same session, shall be again brought forward during the same session unless 2/3rds majority of Synod gives approval.

Amendment on Motions

33. Any amendment to the whole or any part of a motion or resolution submitted to the Synod may be proposed, which is not irrelevant, but no amendment on an amendment shall be in order, and although further amendments may be foreshadowed, no more than one amendment may be placed before the Synod at any one time.

Motion considered in Committee

34. Any member may move that the Synod resolve itself into a committee of the whole to consider any motion submitted to it, and the same rules shall then be observed, where applicable, as when in committee on a Bill.

Motions, How Submitted

35. No motion or amendment, except when in Committee of the whole Synod, shall be in order until it is seconded, and no amendment shall be put from the chair until a written copy shall be put into the hands of the President, Chairman and Secretaries of Synod.

Withdrawal of Motions

36. No motions or amendment, after being submitted, shall be allowed to be withdrawn, except with the consent of the mover and seconder, and by permission of a majority of the Synod.

Division of Motions

37. Any motion or amendment, containing more than one question, shall be divided at the request of a member.

Mode of Voting

38. On all occasions the voting shall be on the voices, or if called for, by a show of hands. If twenty members demand it there shall be a division, or if the Bishop or thirty members desire it, the division shall be by Orders, in which case the vote shall be taken of both Orders simultaneously. If forty members desire it, voting shall be by secret ballot in both houses an a majority of the Houses of Clergy and house of Laity shall be required to resolve the matter in the affirmative.

In case of a division, those in favour of the motion or amendment shall go to the right of the Chair, and those against the motion or amendment to the left of the Chair, and the President or Chairman shall appoint tellers, and shall declare which side has the majority from a count of the members voting, to be given to him by the tellers, and if five members shall require it the names shall be recorded. No member shall leave or enter the Synod after a division is called for until the result be declared.

Motion for Adjournment

39. A motion for adjournment, either of the Synod or the debate, may be made at any time, provided that no member be interrupted when speaking. Provided further that no motion for the adjournment of the Synod be made during the progress of any debate, unless such debate be first adjourned.

Previous Question

40. A question may be superseded -
- (a) by a question of order;
 - (b) by a motion for reading any official document relevant to the question;
 - (c) by amendments;
 - (d) by motion for the adjournment of the debate. If carried, the member moving the adjournment shall have the right to speak first upon resumption of the debate;
 - (e) by the motion "that the Synod proceed to the next business" which shall be put without debate.
 - (f) by the motion "that the question be now put", which shall be decided without debate, provided that before the question is put the mover of the original question shall have the right of reply. If the motion be negatived the discussion shall continue.

Questions

41. (a) After the time for presenting petitions, questions may be put, upon notice, to the President relating to any motion or matter connected with the business of the Synod or any organisation, committee, or board established by or under an ordinance or resolution of Synod.
- (b) In putting any such question no statement of fact shall be made without leave of Synod and no argument or opinion shall be offered and no inference or imputation shall be made.
- (c) A reply to a question shall be in writing and shall be recorded in the proceedings of Synod.

Committee of the Whole - Quorum

42. In Committee of the whole Synod, the same number of members shall form a quorum as in the Synod itself.

If, during the progress of business in Committee, notice to be taken that there is not a quorum, the Chairman shall leave the chair and report the same.

A Motion made in Committee need not be seconded.

Adjournment of Committee

43. A Motion of Adjournment of Committee shall be "That the Chairman leave the chair, report progress, and ask leave to sit again." On such motion being carried the Chairman shall report to the Synod and ask leave accordingly.

Standing Orders to apply in Committee

44. The Standing Orders shall, so far as applicable, be observed in Committee, and the Chairman shall have the same authority as the President for the preservation of order.

Absence of Chairman of Committees

45. In case of the absence of the Chairman the Deputy Chairman shall act and in case of the Deputy Chairman's absence a member whom the Committee shall appoint.

Reports to be Presented

46. Reports of Committees shall be printed in the Synod Business Paper.

Reception of Reports

47. (a) That the reports shall not be debated except at the discretion of the Synod, Bishop or Diocesan Council.
- (b) The motion for the reception of each group of reports shall be proposed and seconded by speeches of not more than ten minutes each, subsequent speakers to the motion being allowed one speech of not more than five minutes on each report, and before such motion is put to Synod the mover and seconder shall have the right of reply, if desired, by speeches of not more than five minutes each.
- (c) Immediately after each group of Reports has been received, any resolution relevant to the subject of Reports in question may be moved -
- (i) of which prior notice has been given in accordance with Standing Orders;
- (ii) of which written notice has been handed to the President during the course of the debate on the Motion for Reception such Notice to be brought to the attention of Synod at the earliest possible moment before the close of the debate.
- (d) The Motion of Thanks to the President for his Address shall be formal.

REGULATIONS AS TO ORDINANCESDiocesan Council Bills

48. Any Bill promoted by the Diocesan Council or to whose introduction the Diocesan Council has consented, shall be printed and distributed to members of Synod and its first reading shall be entered on the business papers.
49. Any member who wishes to bring before the Synod a Bill to whose introduction the Diocesan Council has not consented, shall send a draft to the Diocesan Business Manager not less than eight weeks before the first day of the session of Synod with a written undertaking to pay the cost of printing, and the first reading shall then be entered on the business paper. Should the Bill pass the Synod, then the cost of printing shall be defrayed by the Diocesan Council.

Order of Proceedings in Bills

50. (1) In this Standing Order, unless the contrary intention appears:
- "Bill" means a Bill for an ordinance and, in relation to an ordinance, means the Bill for that ordinance.
- "Clause" in relation to an ordinance, includes a Schedule to the Bill.
- "Committee" means the Committee of the Whole Synod.
- (2) An ordinance of the Synod shall be made, subject to this Order, by:
- (a) the Synod agreeing to a motion that the Bill be approved in principle;
 - (b) the committee then considering the Bill in detail and agreeing to it either with or without amendment; and
 - (c) the Synod agreeing to a motion that Bill do now pass.
- (3) At the time of moving a motion that a Bill be approved in principle the mover may seek the leave of the Synod to introduce the Bill with amendments to the Bill as circulated. If such leave is given the Bill as so introduced shall be the Bill to be debated.
- (4) When a motion that a Bill be approved in principle has been moved and spoken to by the mover and seconder, the President shall ask if any member or members wish to ask the mover or seconder any question or questions to assist members to elucidate the purpose and intended effect of the Bill, and any member may then ask any such question which may thereupon be answered by the mover or seconder. Further such questions may be asked and answered until the President announces that the debate shall proceed.
- (5) A person who has asked or answered a question during the period referred to in paragraph (4) shall not, for the purpose of the ensuing debate, be deemed to have spoken on the motion by virtue only of having asked or answered such question.
- (6) After the President shall have announced that the debate shall proceed, the general principle of the Bill shall be debated.
- (7) If the motion that the Bill be approved in principle be decided in the negative the Bill shall lapse.
- (8) When Synod has agreed to a motion that a Bill be approved in principle, the President shall ask if any member wishes to debate the Bill in Committee.
- (9) If any member shall answer "Yes" then the Synod shall, without motion being moved, forthwith be deemed to have resolved itself into Committee to consider the Bill in detail, unless the Synod resolves that consideration of the Bill by the Committee to be an Order of the Day for another time.
- (10) If no member shall answer "Yes", the motion that the Bill do now pass may be moved forthwith and the Chairman of Committees shall be authorised to certify the Bill to the President, and upon passing of the Bill by the Synod such Bill shall come into effect upon assent of the President.
- (11) If a Bill is considered in Committee, the Chairman may allow the Bill to be considered:
- (a) as a whole;
 - (b) clause by clause;

- (c) by groups of clauses or by groups of clauses and single clauses; OR
 - (d) in a manner which, in the Chairman's opinion, the Chairman considers will best facilitate consideration of the amendments of the Bill that are to be proposed.
- (12) In Committee if the Bill is not taken as a whole:
 - (a) the title and preamble shall be postponed until after the clauses have been agreed to; and
 - (b) the question shall be put by the Chairman in respect of each clause or each group of clauses, as the case requires, that it be agreed to; and
 - (c) when the clauses have all been agreed to either with or without amendment, the question shall be put, first in respect of the preamble (if any) then in respect of the title, that it be agreed to.
- (13) Upon the Committee completing its consideration of a Bill:
 - (a) the Synod shall be deemed to be reconvened and the Chairman shall report to the President the Bill as agreed by the Committee.
 - (b) the President shall, without a motion being moved, put to the Synod the question "that the report be agreed to".
- (14) When the question that the report of the Chairman has been agreed to has been put to the Synod, the motion that the Bill do now pass shall be moved forthwith without notice.
- (15) A motion that a Bill do now pass shall be open to amendment that the Bill, or a specified clause, be recommitted to the Committee to consider an amendment.
- (16) If a Bill, or a clause of a Bill, is recommitted to the Committee:
 - (a) the Synod shall, without a motion being moved, forthwith be deemed to have resolved itself into Committee to consider the proposed amendment;
 - (b) the procedure in Committee shall, as nearly as practicable, be the same as the procedure following the passing of the motion that the Bill be approved in principle except that the Committee shall consider only amendments relating to the purpose of its recommitment; and
 - (c) the procedure following completion of the consideration of the Bill in Committee shall, as nearly as practicable, be the same as that following completion of consideration of the Bill in Committee in the first instance.
- (17) If the motion that the Bill do now pass is agreed to, then:
 - (a) if the Bill was not considered in Committee, the Bill as introduced shall be an ordinance duly passed; or
 - (b) if the Bill was considered in Committee the Bill as certified by the Chairman shall be an ordinance duly passed.

The ordinance shall come into effect upon assent being given by the President.

- (18) The clerical secretary and the lay secretary shall certify on a copy of the ordinance that it is a copy of the ordinance as passed and the date of its passing.
- (19) A motion making the consideration of a Bill an Order of the Day may be moved without notice.
- (20) A motion that a Bill be approved in principle may be moved by the member of Synod who gave the notice or, by leave of Synod, any other member.
- (21) Amendments of a grammatical or editorial nature, or to alter the numbering of sections, subsections and paragraphs or subparagraphs or cross-references in consequence of an amendment made to a Bill, may be made, and clerical or typographical errors may be corrected in any part of a Bill by the Chairman of Committees or, in the case of a Bill which has not been considered in Committee, by the clerical secretary and the lay secretary without any motion being agreed to.

Appointment of Select Committees

- 51. Select Committees may be appointed by name or by ballot; in the former case the notice of motion shall contain the names of those proposed to be elected, whose consent must first have been obtained; but any member may demand that the election be by ballot.

Power to Select Committees

- 52. Select Committees shall be summoned for the first meeting by the Diocesan Business Manager, shall choose their own chairman, and unless directed specially to report to the Synod during the session in which they are appointed, shall have power to sit during recess, and to report at the next session, and every Select Committee shall continue in existence until its report shall have been finally disposed of, or permission for its dissolution shall have been given.

Reports of Select Committees

- 53. Every Select Committee appointed to report to the Synod at its next session shall send in its report to the Diocesan Council, and if the Diocesan Council shall so determine, the said report shall be printed and sent to all the members of Synod at least fourteen days before the day of the meeting.

ELECTION, ETC

Mode of Election

- 54. In case of any election, unless the mode of election be prescribed by any rule or ordinance, any member may require that the election be by ballot.

Nominations and Elections

- 55. (1) A list of elections required to take place during any Session of Synod, together with Form of Nomination, shall be sent to every member of Synod one month before the date on which Synod is to assemble.

- (2) Any member of Synod desiring to submit nominations for any election shall complete and sign a Form of Nomination, and forward it to the Diocesan Business Manager at least twenty-one days before the assembling of Synod.
- (3) A list of names of the persons so nominated shall be sent to each member, but no name shall be shown on the List of Nominations unless it appears on at least two valid nominations.
- (4) A member whose name appears on the List of Nominations may have the nomination withdrawn by giving notice in writing to the Diocesan Business Manager, such notice to be received by the Diocesan Business Manager not less than seven days before Synod meets.
- (5) Printed ballot papers and facilities for voting shall be made available to members at such times as Synod may direct.

Voting by Ballots

56. (1) The mode of election by ballot shall be that the Assistant Secretaries shall provide ballot papers containing the names of the members duly nominated. The name of each member shall be marked off from the Synod Roll as the member collects a ballot paper. Each member present shall place an X against the names of the candidates up to the number specified to be elected, as stated on the ballot paper. The completed ballot papers shall be placed in locked ballot boxes provided by the Assistant Secretaries
- (2) A scrutiny shall be made by the Scrutineer and/or other members of the Synod to be appointed by the President and any paper shall be rejected which has an X against a greater number of names than that specified on the ballot paper. The Scrutineers shall tally the votes recorded on the valid papers against the individual names of the candidates.
- (3) The candidates, to the number required, receiving the highest number of votes, shall be reported to the President, who shall declare the said members elected. In the event of an equality of votes rendering the issue doubtful, the Scrutineer shall write the names of those candidates, whose election is doubtful, on individual pieces of paper, place the pieces of paper in a receptacle and draw therefrom by lot the names of candidates until the remaining places are filled. Any names in excess of the number required shall be recorded in order of votes received.

Suspension of Standing Orders

57. Any Standing Order may be suspended on motion with notice by consent of two-thirds of the members of the Synod then present, or on motion without notice, with the consent of all the members present.

Alteration of Standing Orders

58. Any Standing Order may be amended or repealed, or any new Standing Order may be passed, on due notice being given under Rule 27, provided that at least one-half of the members of each order be present.

Vacancies among Representatives

59. Whenever a vacancy in the number of representatives shall be occasioned by death, resignation, or any other cause, the Bishop shall, within thirty days of receiving notice thereof, issue a Mandate requiring the Parish, Experimental Pastoral Area or Provisional District to hold a Special General Meeting for the purpose of electing a replacement representative.

Report of Proceedings of Synod

60. The Report of the Proceedings of Synod shall be printed as soon as possible after the close of each session, and shall contain the Roll of Members of Synod, the list of officers, and committees, a copy of resolutions and ordinances passed by the Synod, and all reports and other documents which Synod may order to be printed in it by express resolution.

Cases Not Provided For

61. In all cases of order which may arise, not herein provided for, a ruling from the President shall be sought, and every such ruling, until the Synod shall otherwise determine, shall have the same force as a Standing Order, and shall be preserved by the Secretaries in a record of rulings.

62. "These amendments shall not come into effect until the Third Session of the 49th Synod (OR the First Session of the 50th Synod)."
