Theological statement

The Diocese is convinced that every person must be respected, and treated with respect. For all people are created in the image of God and the object of God's love revealed in the reconciling life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The manner in which we deal with abuse, pain or distress is part of our witness to the truth of God who loves and cares for the world. The manner in which we deal with allegations of misconduct is part of our witness to the truth of God who requires integrity, justice, mercy and humility in God's people.

Historical Statement

In 1994 the Diocesan Committee for Allegations of Sexual Misconduct (CASM) was established in the Diocese of Newcastle. It arose out of the reality that there are times when those who care for others fail to act with respect towards the other person and cause harm. There are situations where this failure to care is unacceptable. During its time, through the work of this Committee, its Chair, and Contact People across the Diocese, we have had in “information” means information of whatever nature and from whatever source relating to:

- (b) alleged inappropriate or unreasonable conduct or omission of a Church worker who had knowledge of conduct of another Church worker including any harassment, assault [including physical, spiritual or psychological abuse], or any sexually inappropriate behaviour; or

Part 2 – Application

- 4.
 - 1. This Ordinance applies to all church workers, except in clause (2) below
 - 2. If the Diocesan Council is satisfied that a Church Body has established procedures that are sufficiently equivalent to the procedures established by this Ordinance, it may exempt the Church Workers subject to those alternative procedures from the provisions of this Ordinance.

Part 3 – Code of Conduct

- 5. The Synod or the Diocesan Council shall from time to time by resolution approve a Code of Conduct for observance by Church workers in the diocese.
- 6. The Diocesan Council through the PSC and by such other means as may be considered appropriate shall take such steps as may be necessary or desirable to place a structure for dealing with allegations of sexual harassment, abuse or misconduct. The focus of the policy and procedures document was to facilitate resolution between parties. Issues of a criminal nature were referred to NSW Police and/or DoCS by the Bishop of the Diocese.

In October 2004 the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Australia passed legislation providing for Safety in Ministry to be enacted by each Diocese. In response to these new measures from the National Church the following Ordinance, Protocols, Code of Conduct and Regulations are presented to the Synod of the Diocese of Newcastle in order that our legislation and practices might conform to those in the wider church and provide ethical protocols for Church Workers and an open and effective way of receiving and providing a just outcome for allegations of harassment, abuse, assault or misconduct.
