Little Big Shots film festival is Wagga-bound

SCHOOL holidays are nearly here again and the Museum of the Riverina team is getting ready for another huge one!

Little Big Shots – International Film Festival for Kids 2013 will be presented at the museum's Historic Council Chambers site on Wednesday, July 3 and Thursday, July 4 to get things started.

This is an inspiring and fun-filled festival, featuring the best in Australian and international children's short films.

Little Big Shots is supported by Media Giants, Screen Australia, Film Victoria, The City of Melbourne and Screen NSW.

On Wednesday, July 3 at 10.30am children aged four to 10 years can enjoy the Tykes to Ten film selection.

At 12.30pm on July 3 six to 12-year-olds can view the Six to Tween session.

Thursday morning, July 4, is for the littlies, with the Little

Tykes selection screening at 10.30am for ages three to seven years.

We will finish with the Best of the Festival short films session, for ages five and older at 12.30pm on Thursday, July 4. Each screening will cost $2 per person.

BYO cushion and a parent or carer.

Bookings are essential. Phone 6926 9655 or email museum@wagga.nsw.gov.au.

EXPECTATION: Wagga children are once again expected to flock to Museum of the Riverina's Historic Council Chambers site for the 2013 Little Big Shots – International Film Festival.

Check out the contents of Gran's bag

WHEN Gran comes to visit, she brings her beautiful big red bag.

Discover what's in Gran's Bag when you come along to this delightful theatre show by Greg Lissaman and Chrissie Shaw, presented by Wagga City Council. Following each performance there will be a Museum of the Riverina mystery bag activity for everyone to enjoy. Gran is bringing her bag to the following villages: On Monday, July 8 we will be at Collingullie Public School, Urana Street; Tuesday, July 9 at Ladysmith

Public School, Tywong Street; Wednesday, July 10, Oura Community Hall, Oura Road; Thursday, July 11, Tarcutta Public School, Centenary Avenue; and Friday, July 12 at Uranquinty Community Hall, Baker Street. All shows will run from 10am to 12 noon. The cost will be $2 per person at the door, and the show is suitable for 4 to 8 year olds accompanied by their families or carers. You can find out more information by phoning 6926 9692 or email bell.tracey@wagga.nsw.gov.au

Explore book in new ways

ON Tuesday, July 9 and Wednesday, July 10 you can join the Museum of the Riverina team for a story-making workshop called Feel the story, at the Museum's Historic Council Chambers site.

The workshop will be held from 10.30am to 12 noon on Tuesday, July 9, with a repeat session from 1pm to 2.30pm.

A third session will take place on Wednesday, July 10 from 1pm to 2.30pm.

Come along and read a story with us and then explore the exhibition Living in a Sensory World: Stories from people with blindness and low vision.

Children will then recreate that story as a sensory book-making activity using textured fabrics and found objects that retell the story by touch and feel.

The cost will be $5 per person, suitable for ages 5 to 12 years with a parent/carer.

Bookings are essential on 6926 9655 or museum@wagga.nsw.gov.au.
