FROM: GASO Henderson

SUBJECT: Query regarding missing Duty Books of Detective Peter Fox

DATE: 5 March 2012

Please find attached photocopies of Accountable Forms Register for Duty Books and Archiving spreadsheet for Duty Books from Central Hunter LAC (previously Lower Hunter LAC)

The highlighted sections refer to Duty Books allocated to Detective Peter Fox.

A photocopy of correspondence between Debbie King, former GASO, and Detective Fox dated July 2009, is also attached. The correspondence refers to Lindsay (Ditton, VIP) advising that "Duty Books were collected with the idea of maybe writing a book one day". The correspondence also supplies a list of books "issued which are no longer here".

Dennis/CMT members,

I realise a full accountable book audit will take some time but given the below e-mail we need to action this and once complete, look to retrieve the books and change the way we process this system. Tom, let's minute in CMT as a corruption resistance strategy/action - once the audit is conducted we will follow up.

Dennis, as mentioned, bit to this and we will need to allocate an admin officer to commence this audit - I have no idea how big it is - will await your advice.

Brett Greentree

No Peter they are old books ranging from 1989 to now. Lindsay said you collected your duty book idea of maybe writing a book one day. Let me know if you do ever get the book written because a best seller and I want one.

Deb - Did Lindsay send them to archives? I haven't used a Duty Book for over 3 years.

I had one when I came to Port Stephens - I'll check the number and get back to you.

Are there dates for those below.
