Finding shoes is easy

When you walk through the doors at JD's footwear, formerly Easy Living Footwear, you will find a selection of shoes that combine fashion and comfort in the perfect footwear for any occasion.

Jenny Meek, is a proud independent owner of JDs, and staff will match customers with the latest international styles for everyday and formal occasions from debuts to bridal parties or that special occasion that is on our calendar from time to time.

A commitment to customer service is the key; Jenny pays attention to the important details such as special widths, arch supports and customer satisfaction, this kind of special care and attention is hard to find in retail, and this is what you can expect at JD's footwear, if you have an idea in mind to complete the perfect ensemble, call in soon
